I am interested in serving the Leon County community in the development of housing and real estate policy arena because I want to contribute to finding solutions to many of the challenging issues in this policy area facing families, developers, property owners, and government. In September 2008, I became a Florida-licensed real estate agent. Prior to beginning my real estate career, I worked as a health policy analyst with the Florida Senate and legislative analyst with a local law firm. I received a law degree from the University of Florida in 1987, but I have never been a member of the Bar of any state. My civic involvement, in part, includes: For more than 5 years, Board member of Literacy Volunteers of Leon County; volunteer GED tutor; Red Cross volunteer—currently Disaster Relief and previously Service to Military Families; and mentor youth at Belle Vue Middle School.
