I am the Chair of The USPS Advisory Council, Division of Student Affairs, Florida State University. I have been in this position for six years. My experience, leadership skills, motivational speaking and overall commitment will contribute greatly to the Charter Review Committee. As a volunteer speaker in the local Detention Centers, Jail and Prisons, I truly understand how important it is to be a good listener. I am a self motivated person that will do all I can to help others be more, do more and have more.
