We Live in a Great Place – Resolve to Learn More

Every year Leon County publishes a report on the workings of county government during the prior year. Now available to the public is the "2012 Leon County Annual Report." I urge you to go on-line to the County website (www.leoncountyfl.gov) and review the report under the 'Documents' tab. I think you will discover some things you did not know about this great place we call home.

During the past year, Leon County has been conducting a Citizen Engagement Series. The sessions focused on the basics of local government, balancing the budget, emergency medical services, the library system, and solid waste management. The series will continue this year with the next session "Leon County Tourism Work$: Attracting Visitors, Creating Jobs" on January 31st. Registration is now open and will continue through January 29th. Come join us and learn more about this great place we call home.

If you have not looked around lately, check out our community. Pledge a day this year to visit one of the parks or greenways, branch libraries, or even just look over the Leon County website – learn something new. We live in a great place, resolve this year to learn more and get involved.

"I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives. I like to see a man live so that his place will be proud of him."
