State law prohibits extreme increases in the price of essential commodities, such as food, ice, gas, hotels, lumber, water and certain services provided by contractors during this declared state of emergency.

Anyone who suspects price gouging should report it to the Attorney General's Office by calling 1-866-9-NO-SCAM (1-866-966-7226). For frequently asked questions about price gouging, click here.

There are reports of scammers claiming to be FEMA officials who are demanding a $150 deposit in exchange for helping consumers file hurricane-related insurance claims.

Please remember, there is no fee to file a FEMA claim and Floridians who encounter this scam should report it by calling the Department's Consumer Insurance Helpline at 1-877-693-5236. Consumers can also utilize this helpline to get free help with the filing of hurricane-related insurance claims.
