Consent Agenda: Commissioner Bryan Desloge moved and second by Commissioner Nancy Miller. The motion was unanimously approved.

Red Hills International Horse Trials - Jane Barron, Tom Barron and Rose Naff made a presentation before the Tourist Development Council(TDC) requesting signature and capital improvement funding by the TDC through their application, attached letter, and five-year infrastructure plan. In their presentation, all three Red Hills organizers expounded upon their commitment to the future of the event and a Three Year Organizational Restructuring Plan which includes the identification of an Executive Director, for which a private source of funding has been identified but could not be revealed at the current time. Jane Barron reiterated her intent to remain the event's organizer/active advisor for a minimum of three years with the goal to gradually scale back her involvement as the Executive Director gains traction. Red Hills will be positioned to move forward as one of the premier eventing competitions in the United States drawing competitors from around the world.

The progress made in recent years with respect to the infrastructure and capital requirements has the property for the event primed to succeed and it could not have been possible without the community wide support from the Leon County Tourist Development Council, the City of Tallahassee, the Northwest Florida Water Management District and a number of private sponsors. With a three-year agreement between course designers Michael Etherington-Smith, David O'Conner, and Red Hills signed, the event will look to complete the major move of the cross country course, as well as the relocation of the sponsor tent and arenas. Once these have been completed, no additional major construction should be necessary.

Russell Daws moved and second by Commissioner Desloge that Red Hills be approved for $50,000 for the Signature Event Grant and Commissioner Miller moved and second by Chairman Schmitz that Red Hills Capital Improvements funding be recommended to the Board of County Commissioners for approval. It was unanimously approved.

Word of South Festival – Mark Mustian came before the TDC requesting Signature Grant funding for the Festival. Commissioner Miller moved and second by Commissioner Desloge that the Word of South Festival receive funding in FY2016 in the amount of $37,000. It was unanimously approved.

Market Days – Amber O'Connell – Tallahassee Museum came before the TDC requesting Signature Grant funding for the Market Days event in December 2015. Commissioner Miller moved and second by Commissioner Desloge that Market Days be funded at $25,000. It was unanimously approved. For the record, TDC member Russell Daws recused himself from the vote.

Special Event Grant Review Committee Report – Chucha Barber thanked the members of the Special Event Grant Review Committee for their unselfish service and dedication. She also gave special thanks to the TDC Staff for doing such a wonderful job. Chucha Barber had some reservation concerning some of the applicants funding request for lobbying purposes. Lee Daniel stated that we have a little over $ 17,000 left in the fund. Lee Daniel asked that two applicants be considered for funding Frontline Skin Cancer Education Conference in the amount of $1,200 and Department of Juvenile Justice Staff Development and Training Conference in the amount of $2,400 that were not originally included in the final recommendation by the Grants Review Committee. The total amount of grants funded is $86,022. Commissioner Desloge moved and second by Chucha Barber to approve the funding recommendation of the Special Event Grants Review Committee to include the two additional grants. It was unanimously approved.

Sports Council – Brian Hickey came forward with 49 of 50 recommendations for grant funding for the 1st Grant Cycle. He estimates 33, 000 visitors, 12,600 room nights and $10m in revenue. Russell Daws moved and second by Chucha Barber. The report passed unanimously.

Kerr & Downs-Third Quarter Visitor Tracking Report – Dr. Phillip Downs and Dr. Joseph St. Germain made a presentation concerning the activity for the 3rd Quarter which appeared to be very impressive. Several members of the TDC expressed some concern about how the visitors are getting the online survey, how are we doing in the area of entertainment, are we collecting bed tax from persons with RV's,? Members of the TDC agreed that we need to do a better job to promote attractions and activities in Tallahassee.

Zimmerman Agency 2015 -2016 Advertising Initiatives – Mallory Hartline and Rusty Howard gave a presentation on the new ideas for FY16. Chucha Barber inquired as to how the concept of GEO fences works and it was explained by Mallory Hartline. Lee Daniel commented that we will be testing the "fences" strategy for a few months and monitor its effect on visitors to our city.

Staff Reports

Market Communications – Lauren Pace gave a report on the activities pertaining to upcoming events such as the 2016 Visitor's Guide, Market Rollout, new staff member PR/Marketing Specialist ready to come aboard, Travel Media Showcase, Tour Guide Program and Great Southern Summer.

Meetings & Conventions – Janet Roach gave a brief update on activities that she attended such as Meetings Professional International Conference, Florida Society Association Executives Conference, Florida Meeting Showcase, Excite Tradeshow, and worked on E-Pro Newsletter, plus the Customer Service Training Program.

Visitor's Services – Andi Ratliff gave a very exciting report which focused on a significant increase in visitor traffic to the Welcome Center. Andi has made an effort to make sure that the various hotel properties are well stocked with information for their guests. She also informed the TDC that there has been a significant jump in sales within the Welcome Center.

Sports – Amanda Heidecker gave a review of several activities that have taken place within the last two months. Jacksonville Storm Showcase, AAU Region 9 Track & Field Qualifier, FSU Invite/Pre-State Meet, ACC Championship Track Meet, FHSASA State Cross Country Championship, the Leon County Parks will be getting the Excellence In Sports Tourism Award in Orlando, Florida.

Director's Report

COCA Grants - Marion McGee gave some comments about the COCA grants process and thanked the County for their support of the grants. She also stated that there are some recipients that are never able to bring in people from out of town to spend the night. Russell Daws said that he thought the staff did an outstanding job this year but the elected officials and business community need to step up and support the plan. Chucha Barber stated that she had some reservation with the goal and role of the Advisory Board. She has observed that some city officials do not support the cultural plan and some of its projects in a positive manner. Commissioner Miller feels that we need to really support the Arts through a marketing plan which can help Tallahassee economically. Lee Daniel announced that the COCA Workshop will be held on September 15, 2015.

Jet Blue Issue – Lee Daniel wanted to make a clarification on the issue. The Tallahassee Democrat's report that the TDC was providing incentives for new service was not completely accurate. We would be providing marketing support in greater Ft. Lauderdale to help drive inbound traffic on Jet Blue.

County Logo – The county administrator has approved the logo and it will be presented at the Market Rollout on October 1, 2015.

Governor's Conference – Lee Daniel mentioned about Singularity University, a think tank in California which is funded by NASA has produced some new technology advancements. He was truly amazed about some of the new technology that is being presented across the country and throughout the world.

Upcoming Concerts – Lee Daniel announced about the Tallahassee Nights Live Concert on September 25th featuring R & B Singer Howard Hewitt and Mama Blue. Lee stated that it has been a real challenge trying to bring top quality entertainers to Tallahassee without having to pay huge amounts of money to help subsidize the event. He is still working with Adam Corey about bringing in a concert for Edison's grand opening. Commissioner Desloge gave a special thanks to Scott Carswell for his promotion expertise and the City for working hard to develop strict policies for users. Commissioner Miller addressed concerns about the type and number of upcoming events that have been scheduled for the amphitheater which are competing with Lee Daniel's shows.

Bed Tax Collection – Lee Daniel was elated about Tallahassee having a banner year and reaching the 12.5 % increase in bed tax collection for the year.

UNEXPECTED TALLAHASSEE

Tucked in the interior of Northwest Florida, the state's capital is not exactly on everyone's travel radar. Yet hidden Old Florida gems like the Goodwood Museum & Gardens, with its stunning courtyard, are worth a stop.

Time in Tallahassee

In this town known for politics and higher education,

Mark Gauert discovers another side to Florida's capital where fun and the spirit of the South make for a great weekend

e never go to Tallahassee for fun.

When we go to
Tallahassee — once before the fall semester, once after the spring — we go to take our son to or from Florida State University. We go to shop for the dorm room at Walmart. For groceries at Trader Joe's. For shoes at Governor's Square Mall.

When we go to Tallahassee, at the hard end of a six-hour road trip up the peninsula and across part of the panhandle, we go to lift boxes from our car and carry them up flights of dorm stairs. When we leave Tallahassee, we carry them down flights of dorm stairs and back into our car for the hard road trip home. We do this after driving hundreds of miles up; we do this before driving hundreds of miles back.

At the end of these days in Tallahassee, because we are too tired for independent thought of our own, we follow our son to his favorite restaurant in town, Mr. Roboto. It is fast, the red curry is delicious, and the beer is cold. It is not fine dining, but it's close to campus and an easy walk from the bus station — which makes for interesting people watching on the outdoor patio. (And sometimes, interesting people from the bus station watch us on the outdoor patio, too.)

These are our days, when we go to Tallahassee. They are all business. They are all a blur.

We never go to Tallahassee for fun. But that changed recently.

From top: A landmark, Bradley's Country Store is known for its homemade sausage; a waffle, scones and grits with a dollop of apple butter at Paisley Cafe.

Changed when our son, a sophomore becoming a junior, moved from a dorm on campus to a furnished apartment off campus. For the first time, we did not have to carry boxes up stairs or down. Everything was already there for him.

For a change, we had time in Tallahassee. We did not have to go shopping at Walmart or Trader Joe's or the Governor's Square Mall. We did not have to eat out at the restaurant nearest to campus simply because we were too tired to look anywhere else.

And we found, over a long weekend, that Tallahassee is more than a blur. Tallahassee is an interesting place. An entertaining place. A place worth a drive, even if we were not on a mission to take our son back to school.

We stayed at The Governors Inn, a comfortable hotel (that, fun fact, used to be a stable) a short walk from the Capitol. It's also near the Tallahassee Downtown Marketplace, where most Saturdays you can start the day with a beignet and shop under Spanish moss-draped oaks for jars of Monticello honey, local produce and warm loaves of Thomasville bread.

We were hungrier than that, so we slipped into the Paisley Café for Liège Belgium waffles — a dish the owner, Kiersten Lee, insists is made with just four ingredients: King Arthur flour, pearl sugar, organic brown eggs and Kerrygold butter. They are as delicious, with a dollop of praline maple syrup, as they are beautiful. "My favorite color," Lee smiles, "is golden brown."

We followed the road north out of town to the red-brick main street of nearby Thomasville, Ga., for some antiquing on Broad Street and some Green Hill, Lil' Moo and Georgia Gouda cheeses (served with raspberry and jalapeño jam) at the Sweet Grass Dairy Cheese Shop. We stopped for some hickory and oak-smoked sausage at Bradley's Country Store, which "stands just as it did in 1927" under shady oaks 12 miles out of Tallahassee on the Centerville Road. The four rocking chairs on the front porch were occupied by folks slowly munching the $5.50 sausage dog, chips and soda special. "Y'all have a good day," Mr. Bradley, the 89-year-old, third-generation Bradley, called on our way back to town. We had followed the road north, but we had found the South.

Back in Tallahassee that afternoon, we wandered the well-preserved Goodwood Museum & Gardens, an 1830s-vintage mansion popular today for weddings, with verandas, Spanish-moss-draped oak canopy and enough vintage furniture, porcelain and glassware for a season of Antiques Roadshow. Early copies of Godey's Lady's Book 1870, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and The Adventures of Tom Sawyer line the bookshelf.

But we had adventures of our own.

We took a midnight run out to the Bradfordville Blues Club — on a country road we're pretty sure must look like a creek bed in daylight. We listened to Victor Wainwright — the "Piana from Savannah" howl "Baby, come back home" in the night, as the tiny dance floor filled up tight. We heard The Avett Brothers sing 26 of the SRO crowd's favorite songs, including a four-song encore, at the new Capital City Amphitheater. We sipped Madison Mules (ginger beer, cucumber, Tito's Handmade Vodka, lime and agave for sweetness) at Madison Social, a new campus hot spot, within sight of the FSU football stadium. It was a kick.

We found fine dining at Nefetari's Fine Cuisine & Spirits (Jerk Fettuccine Alfredo, Buddha's Delight and, unexpectedly, belly Clockwise from top left: Local blues club; downtown's green space; Sweet Grass Dairy Cheese Shop; Victor Wainwright performing at Bradfordville Blues Club dancing); The Front Porch (Crab-Crusted Red Grouper over Spicy Red Beans and Rice, Rib Eye over Mashed Red Bliss Potatoes and served, expectedly, on a real front porch) and Cypress Restaurant (Sugarcane Mopped Rib Eye, Cypress Vegan and, apparently, everybody's favorite place in Tallahassee for a prom or anniversary date). We watched the shucking at Shell Oyster Bar, too — a former Texaco gas station you might not go to unless you knew it's where locals go. We understood, after filling up on oysters fresh from Apalachicola Bay, cheese grits and hushpuppies.

And just before heading home, we put a cherry on top of it all at Lofty Pursuits, famous for "Public Displays of Confection" since 1993. We sat at the old-fashioned soda fountain, spooning sundaes — watching soda jerks in green aprons, hats and bow ties make root beer floats, egg creams and hard candy — and, though sugar buzzed, had the presence of mind for an independent thought.

We may have to go to Tallahassee to shop for the apartment at Walmart. For groceries at Trader Joe's. For shoes at the Governor's Square Mall.

But the next time we go, we're also going for fun. S

T-Town tourism up 40 percent in five years

More visitors flocked to Tallahassee and pumped money into restaurants, hotels and activities over the last five years than ever before, resulting in a 40 percent increase in local tourism.

Big boosts came from two special sessions and Florida State's football mania, along with a wrap-around campaign to drive up overall awareness of the state capital known for live oaks, trails, culture and quaint charm. The area welcomed 2.4 million annual visitors from 47 states and 36 countries.

47 states and 36 countries.

"If you look at the months that we grew where there wasn't football or special session, I think our spring campaign was extremely important," said Lee Daniel, director of the Leon County Divi sion of Tourism Development.

"I think we are continuing to build awareness of Tallahassee as a destination. More people are hearing about us and trying us out."

Leon County's success aligns with the state, which has seen a record number of tourists. Florida Tax Watch released an August 2014 report stating the number of tourists coming to the state has been steadily increasing as a result of a commitment to invest in tourism-related marketing

Since the beginning of 2013, Florida has seen the addition of 38,000 tourismrelated jobs, which resulted in the creation of 37,000 non-tourism industry jobs," said Dominic Calabro, president and CEO of Florida Tax Watch, in the report. "Just last year more than 75,000 jobs were created in Florida as a direct result of our state's investment in tourism."

The state's success story is driving home a strong message.

On Thursday, Daniel also released details for plans to continue injecting money into new, tech-savvy approaches that officials hope will help Leon County clear the billion mark for economic impact. In the last five years, Leon County had a $963 million economic impact created by tourism.

Residents might not see all of the efforts. Othersare more obvious, such as changing Visit Tallahassee's logo, promoting #IHeartTally on social media and creating a more user-friendly website and more technology that makes finding dining and fun easier for visitors staying at local hotels.

"We think it's very clever and sells the destination," Daniel said of the new logo. "We think it's going to work much harder for us in selling the destination."

Tourism supports a variety of jobs, from entry level positions to management posts. Tourism accounts for more than 11,140 jobs in Leon County.

"The team at Tourism continues to raise the bar through creativity and innovation," County Administrator Vincent Long said in a statement. "For those who live in Leon County, we all know we have something special in our backyard. And through the work of Tourism, the entire region — and even the nation — are learning about what we have to offer. It's exciting to say: this is just the beginning of more record years."

By SHILLY GARLE

allahassee is proof that a Florida city doesn't need to be on the coast or home to theme parks to be a great travel destination. When I thought of visiting Florida prior to my trip, I did not think of this historical, adventure-filled city. I'm glad to say that this spot, a scenic three and a half hours away from Middle Georgia, has shot up on my list of family-friendly locales. Everywhere you look, there are movements to encourage families, and especially children, to get outside and be active. In Tallahassee, you will find that there is plenty to keep the whole family engaged out of doors. For help in planning your trip, check out VisirTallahassee.com.

Aloft Tallahassee Downtown is in a great location for access to a number of dining choices, and it is not too far from many of the outdoor activities. The rooms are laid out with either two queen or one king bed. Everything is placed very efficiently in these rooms with space for a pack-n-play should it be needed. With all that is available to do, you will love that Aloft offers convenient, grab-and-go-style dining in the lobby at Re:Fuel. Among the yogurt, fruit, and beverages, there is also a limited grill menu for every meal and a select Starbucks menu. Stop by the W XYZ Bar or pool to unwind.

One of the really good things I discovered about this beautiful city is that it's hard to go wrong with dining choices. There is an abundance of fresh seafood and other locally produced ingredients. Level 8 is found on the top of the historic Hotel Duval with a new appetizer menu, a great selection of cocktails (try the Rented Mule), and an unparalleled view of the city. Visit the new Zin & Sin for a mind-blowing meal and a dessert bar that is hard to beat. Be sure to at least taste the Lobster Mac & Choese. At Upnown Café, try the Banana Bread French Toast or have their Apricot Glazed Salmon in a dish—it is smoked and glazed on site. It can also be ordered online and shipped anywhere.

Backwoods Bistro has an eclectic menu with options for any taste buds and, among others, a chocolate tiramisu cake for dessert. For a laid-back atmosphere and fantastic sandwiches, stop by Andrew's Capital Grill & Bar. If you're looking for something more formal, you must visit A la Provence, which features the best ingredients that can be found for each of its dishes, most of them locally sourced. Take the short walk across the parking lot after dinner for a cold treat at Lofty Pursuits, an old-fashioned soda fountain, candy, and unique game store. Demos of games can be enjoyed along with menu items such as a true root beer float or a carefully crafted sundae. If you're really lucky, you may also catch a confectioner making old-fashioned hard candy using vintage and antique equipment.

Clockwise: Kayaking on Wakulla Springs River; Tackling the Tree-to-Tree Adventure at Tallahassee Museum; and the reflection pool at Alfred B. Maclay Gardens State Park.

In Tallahassee, there are plenty of places to simply go and spend the day. For the budget-friendly option, a lot of parks and over 600 miles of trails (including the Leon Sinks Geological area) provide day-long amusement with little out-of-pocket cost. Visit http://visittallahassee.com/explore/ self-guided-tours/budget-friendly-tallahassec/ for a list of things to do that will cost you less than ten dollars. A tank of gas, a picnic basket, and a cooler will give you a nice day trip from Middle Georgia to Florida's beautiful capital city. If you head out to the Edward Ball Wakulla Springs State Park, there are trails and beaches, boat tours, a soda fountain, and a very nice but very casual dining room. Lodging is also available. Rent a kayak or canoe at T-N-T Hideaway, and spend the day on the blissfully cold Wakulla Springs River. You can observe manatees, alligators, birds, and more while dipping your hands in the clear, cold water.

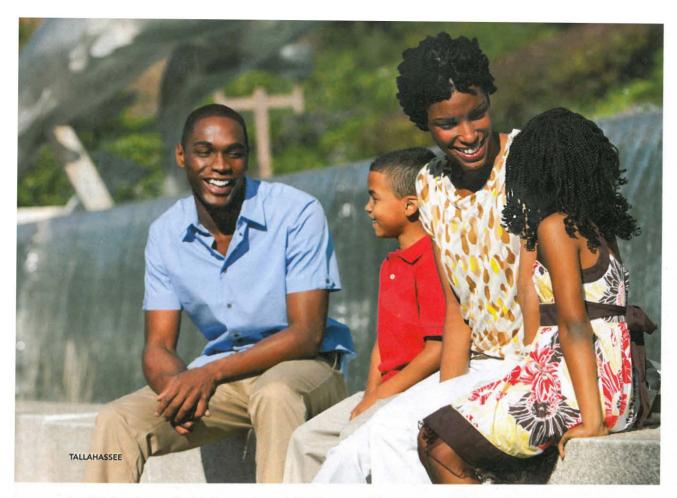

Another location that can take up your whole day is the Tallahassee Museum. Bask in the historical buildings on site, sour through the air on a zip line obstacle course, observe wild animals in their natural habitats, and wander the many trails. There is even a cafe, a rip line for the kiddos, and a playground. Be sure to keep an eye out for colorful dinosaurs created from old auto parts scattered along the trails. Spend your Saturday night without the children at The Bradfordville Blues Club, a truly Southern institution off the beaten path of this city. Before I headed out on Sunday, I enjoyed a wonderful service at the historic and beautiful St. John's Episcopal Church, followed by a brunch of shrimp and grits at Kool Beanz Café, a local joint with a menu that changes daily. I know I will not wait too long before I journey back to Tallahassee and introduce my husband and daughter to all its wonders. # sandy white beaches, golf, ziplining, casinos, nightclubs, bars, paddleboarding, snorkeling, scuba diving, surfing, horseback riding, fishing and kayaking. You'll likely spend many days in Old San Juan, the quaint, historic town with its blue cobblestone streets and pastel-colored buildings inspired by Spanish and French architecture. There are famous landmarks like the Castillo San Cristóbal, the biggest European fortification in the Americas, museums, boutiques that specialize in the unusual, churches and an array of restaurants.

Puerto Rico offers unique cuisine that brings together three distinct cultures and culinary traditions: Taino Indian, Spanish and African. If you want to get off the beaten path and eat down-home cooking in the 'hood, there are the kiosks in the town of Liquillo. Don't be fooled by the non-descript row of shacks/food stands near the beach. You'll get good stuff, folks food—mofongo, ceviche, bacalaitos, pastelittos, empanadillas and then some. And yes, you'll learn to wash it down like the locals, with Puerto Rico's Medalla beer.

Another plus: Puerto Rico is a U.S. territory, so you don't have some of the hassles typical when moving to other Caribbean islands. Health care standards are generally comparable with those in the U.S. Whether you envision your retirement as adventure filled, quietly soaking up the sun and listening to music, taking long walks or feasting the way real foodies do, Puerto Rico might be right for you.

Think You Know Tallahassee - Think Again

Tallahassee is full of surprises. The Florida state capital and college town that is home to Florida A&M and Florida State University is a potpourri—a little bit country, yet cosmopolitan and funky, topped off with Southern charm.

Located 25 miles from the Gulf of Mexico and 14 miles south of Georgia, Tallahassee is situated among rolling hills, canopy roads, majestic oaks, rivers and lakes. Sperling's Best Places reports that the cost of living in this town of roughly 181,000 people is about 4% below the national average, the median home price is $146,000 and home prices haven't escalated as much as in other Florida cities. Sperling says Tallahassee has good home values and neighborhoods, and for that reason it is becoming more popular for retirees looking for a pleasant climate, less crowding and some intellectual stimulation.

Whether your thing is classical concertos under the stars, Charlie Wilson at the new Capital City Amphitheater at Cascades Park or weekend art festivals like the African Dance Festival, there is no shortage of entertainment. There are museums and plenty of places to get your culture groove on. Check them out on visittallahassee. com. No college town is complete without the nightclubs, bars and restaurants sprinkled throughout Midtown, Downtown, CollegeTown, Gaines Street and elsewhere.

The great outdoors awaits those who can't get enough of state parks, fishing, biking, hiking and boating. A short drive away is Edward Ball Wakulla Springs State Park, one of the largest and deepest fresh-water springs in the world. You'll likely spot alligators and manatees on the river boat tour.

Retirees might just eat their way through retirement. Tallahassee cuisine is perhaps the biggest surprise. There is the Paisley Café, decked out with paisley walls, old-fashioned chairs and outdoor patio. Owner Kiersten Lee believes in putting "love on a plate." She pairs creamy smoked gouda with a twist of collards, rendered smoked sausage, white acre peas, petite corn muffins and homemade apple butter and numerous delectables you haven't tasted quite like she does. You'll keep going until you've tried everything on the menu. The recently opened, upscale Zin & Sin serves up Tallahassee's own Apalachicola oysters, lobster mac and cheese and meatloaf that's nothing like what your mother made. For breakfast there's Canopy Road Café. The goodies include sweet potato pancakes and chicken and waffles. For sophisticated Southern-style food, Cypress showcases the works of local artists and tickles your taste buds with dishes like Quail N' Belly, pecan fried quail, bourbon-and-cane-lacquered pan-roasted bacon, sweet potato gnocchi, field peas and apple cider sauce.

Tallahassee is full of black history. The African-American Heritage self-guided tour includes the Taylor House Museum of African-American History, Culture and Civil Rights. Frenchtown is where, after the Civil War, many former slaves migrated to the area and developed it into a thriving, middle-class African-American community. The Tallahassee-Leon County Civil Rights Heritage Walk commemorates the Tallahassee bus boycott of 1956 and the first downtown lunch counter sit-in demonstration in 1960.

Tallahassee, a bit under the radar, may be one of Florida's bestkept secrets, but likely not for much longer.

For more information visit: Visittallahassee.com | Talgov.com/seniors/SeniorsHome.aspx | TallahasseeMagazine.com. Tallahassee is ideal for foodies, outdoor activities, low cost of living.

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO

Colorado Springs Isn't Just for Skiing

When it comes to Colorado Springs, the scenery is unrivaled. From the beauty of the Rocky Mountains and Pikes Peak to sites like the Garden of the Gods, it is hard not to be in awe.

Colorado Springs isn't just known for its inspired landscape. The outdoorsy types will get their fill of fishing, golf, horseback riding, rafting, biking and free parks. The Garden of the Gods offers guided nature walks, exhibits, mountain biking and picnicking. There are also casinos and top-notch restaurants—so many that they have spawned food tours. Colorado Springs goes hard with the festivals, like the balloon festival and the festival of lights. The city has a lively arts and culture scene, with events ranging from rodeos to gallery openings.

With so many nonprofits in town, retirees have many opportunities to volunteer. The city is buzzing about the fact that it will soon break ground on the first-ever Olympic museum in the downtown area, which will likely bring yet more revitalization to the area.

Visit Tallahassee Unveils New Logo

Tallahassee, Fla.

Visit Tallahassee touts a record year of tourism and a new logo.

The new graphic shows an old mossy tree with a shadow making out the old capitol building. Alongside the picture is new font.

Last year, more than 2.4 million tourists came to Leon County generating more than $960 million.

"I think you can always improve," said Lee Daniel, director of Leon County Division of Tourism Development. "I think you know any business that doesn't look to do things better is ultimately doomed to failure so we think that the new logo tells a better story of what we are as a destination and we think it will work harder for us."

Daniel says he hopes to use more social media in advertising including the popular hashtag #IHeartTally.

LEON COUNTY CELEBRATES BEST TOURISM YEAR, EVER!

PRESS RELEASE. Tourism inches closer to a billion collar industry in Florida's Capital County as Leon County saw its sixth consecutive year of fourism growth including. Tourism accounts for more than 11,140 jobs in Leon County.

"In Lean County, we have a rich amay of educational, recreational, cultural and social offerings for people of all ages," said: Lean County Commission Chairman Mary Ann Lindley. "And with each year, contourism economy continues to grow."

are Daniel, Director of the Feon County Division of Tourism Development, announced the year-endiresults and unveiled future plans to local tourism industry members during the annual Marketing Rollout on Oct. Lat Theatre Tallahassee.

Highlights of the 2014/2015 fiscal year include:

- 12% Increase in bed-lax collections, which fund all fourism promotions.
- 2.6% increase in hotel occupancy, including a record occupancy of 73% in March (average year-round occupancy is: 65%)
- $30.8 million in economic impact from sporting events and team training, for example the Tallahassee Tottenham
 Horspur International Player Development Training that took place at Forest Meadows in August and the British Olympic Association Dive Team Training taking place at Morcom Aquatic Center later this month.

"The team at Tourism continues to raise the bar through creativity and innovation," said Leon County Administrator Vincent S. Long. "For those who live in Leon County, we all know we have something special in our backyard. And through the work of Tourism, the entire region--and even the nation--are learning about what we have to offer. It's exciting to say: this is just the beginning of more record years."

The county collects a 5% bed tax from hotels and short-term lodging establishments which fund all tourism promotions and other tourism-related activities.

In addition, the Leon County Division of Tourism Development grants helped fund 103 sports, special and signature events in the county. The Council on Culture and Arts (COCA) received $904,500 in tourism funds for its arts and culture events, nearly twice the amount it previously received.

"It's been a banner year across all sectors," Daniel said. "We saw positive growth in all key indicators including visitation, spending and tourism-related jobs."

Tourism officials introduced the 2016 visitor guide, cooperative advertising plans available to the industry and other initiatives, which included a new logo for promotional use, expanded online advertising ventures with one venture targeting guests at local hotels and attractions, and expanded promotions for outdoor recreation including enhancements to its award-winning Trailahassee.com website.

The event also included the announcement of the 2015 Thomas A. Waits Distinguished Leadership Awards. The "Tommy Awards" recognize an individual and company or organization for excellence in tourism marketing, community initiatives, innovation and developing partnerships on behalf of the tourism and hospitality industry.

COCA and Ricky Bell, Director of Student Activities for Leon County Schools, received the awards. The awards are presented annually to those nominated by the tourism community and selected by a panel of past recipients.

For 30 years, COCA has served as a catalyst for the development and support of arts and culture in the capital region. It provides information and promotes arts and culture to residents and visitors through a variety of methods including an events calendar and social media promotions.

Bell has served on the Tallahassee Sports Council, a segment of the county's tourism program, for more than 14 years and served as the group's chair for two years. He was instrumental in establishing relationships with other government entities, Florida State University and Florida A&M and using the strength of this alliance in attracting major sporting events to the county.

The awards have been presented annually since 2002. In 2003, the award was officially named "The Thomas A. Waits Hospitality Award" – affectionately known as "The Tommy." It pays tribute to a man who dedicated his career to economic development through tourism. In 2010, the program expanded for also recognizing one organization that reflects the ideals and visionary leadership of tourism excellence.

A Record Year and New Plans for Capital County Tourism

By TOM FLANIGAN . OCT 2, 2015

SHARE

Twitter Faceboo Google+ Email The Tallahassee area has just ended its best year ever when it comes to tourism.

The county's Division of Tourism Development plans to build on that success with a new brand image and marketing outreach this year.

New logo for Leon County's Division of Tourism Development Tourism Development Executive Director Lee Daniel gave a combination year-in-review and new marketing plan rollout Thursday (10/1) at Theatre Tallahassee.

During the year just ended, Leon County saw a record two-point-four million visitors, along with hefty increases in hotel occupancy, tourism-related jobs, economic impact and a thirteen percent jump in bed tax receipts.

"We're very, very proud of that," he said after the presentation. "I think that's a great benchmark in terms of how business was and again 2015 was the greatest year in the history of Leon County tourism."

What contributed to the success? Daniel said new events like Tallahassee Music Week and venues like Cascades Park helped. Then there were a lot of sports and politics to bring and keep more people in the area.

"We did have a great football season last year, no question," he pointed out. "We had two special sessions that certainly helped, although it doesn't necessarily help with our tax collections because a lot of that business is tax exempt. But it brings people to the community and helps the overall economy by people dining in our restaurants, staying in our hotels and shopping in our shops."

But now it's a new year and Visit Tallahassee has a new logo. Gone is the stylized star. Now there's a spreading oak tree whose shadow is that of the historic old State Capitol Dome.

"I think this one does a much better job," Daniel said. "It's much more contemporary, much more friendly and really gives people an idea of what we offer as a destination, which the old logo really didn't. So we think it's going to be an additional sales tool for us and work hard for us."

There will be more marketing of the area's outdoor amenities.

"Millennials love the outdoors all the way through to boomers," Daniel said. "And we have an amazing outdoor product so that's one of the things we're going to put an increased emphasis on.

Daniel said that would combine with the latest "smart" online ad technology connecting visitors with all kinds of nearby attractions.

"You get up to your room and you go to your tablet or smart phone, go to ESPN.com or whatever and boom; our message is right there," he explained. "And it's targeted to where you are. It knows where you are and it's giving you places to dine, to shop, attractions that are within a very short walk or very short distance of where you are."

Publisher and local business advocate Joe Berg likes the campaign overall and hopes homegrown enterprise will be part of the mix.

"You know if you're coming into town and stop in a chain hotel and you get ads for a TGI Friday's that's nearby, that's great. But making that accessible to the local restaurant right down the street that really embodies local culture, that has local bands playing there and serving local foods would be a layer of depth that would entice people to go deeper into Tallahassee," Berg said.

Florida's Capital City; coming off a record tourism year and hoping to do even better this year.

Re: Significant Event Supplemental Request

Dear Council Members:

Please accept for your consideration a supplemental request for funding for the Word of South Festival of Literature and Music for 2016.

Word of South was approved for funding for $37,000 for its 2016 festival at the TDC meeting held in September. We have been working since then in collaboration with Scott Carswell Productions with respect to potential musical acts to appear at the festival. However, due to competition with other area festivals with "blackout" provisions and the narrow window with which we can both sell out the concert and afford the band, we've had some difficulty in securing the "headliner" acts we'd like (although we're still working on it!). As such, we'd like to request an additional $13,000 to apply toward this effort—the total amount received would then match the amount that for which the TDC funded Word of South last year.

Thank you for your consideration. I'll be at the meeting Thursday and available to answer questions.

Statement of Issue

On December 9, 10, and 11, 2014, the City of Tallahassee, Leon County and the Tallahassee Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) approved an amendment to the CRA interlocal agreement providing the existing Performing Arts Center (PAC) Tourist Development Tax (Bed Tax) balance, plus the amount accrued through September 30, 2014, remain with the CRA for arts-related uses. In addition, it was determined that the $508,425 in PAC Bed Tax funds owed to the County by the City for costs incurred during the demolition of the John's Building be used for improvements relating to the Capitol City Amphitheater.

On February 26, 2015, staff presented preliminary options for the expenditure of the Bed Tax funds to the CRA Board. The Board opted to expand the process and authorize staff to meet with the different stakeholders and bring back an agenda item containing multiple proposals that incorporate the goals of the cultural plan into the surrounding Cascades Park and Frenchtown/Southside areas. The majority of Board members voiced their support of the intent to enhance Cascades Park and the surrounding area with options supporting dance, music, a black box theatre, and art using the goals of the cultural plan as a tool to establish the best use of the funding. Based on CRA Board discussion and direction, staff began work on an Arts, Culture and Heritage Initiative.

In order to ensure thorough consideration of all opportunities and options, CRA staff is proposing a two phase process. This agenda item, which summarizes Phase One of the process, will:

- Provide a summary of staff's research,
- Facilitate the Board's consideration of different options, and,
- Obtain Board direction for Phase 2 of the initiative.

Following Board direction, staff will initiate Phase 2 of the process, which includes further meetings with the Tallahassee/Leon County community and representatives of the Arts, Culture and Heritage community for additional input and to further refine the concepts. Following completion of Phase 2, staff will return to the CRA Board with the results of the process for further review and possible approval. Following final CRA action, the proposal would be scheduled for City Commission and Board of County Commissioners review and action as required by the amended interlocal agreement.

Recommended Action

Option 1 - Provide staff with direction on Phase 2 of the Initiative including 1 or more preferred use(s) for further conceptual development and public input.

Fiscal Impact

None at this time.

Supplemental Material/Issue Analysis

History/Facts & Issues

Research

In order to prepare for the discussions with the art community, staff reviewed the Cultural Plan, Florida Statutes Chapter 125, and researched programs in other cities. To learn more about the specific cultural needs and goals within the Tallahassee/Leon County community, CRA staff held multiple meetings with representatives from COCA and the visual arts and theater communities to discuss their needs, ideas and opportunities. CRA staff found a consistent message emerged from many of the discussions as the conversations centered on the need for studios, galleries, rehearsal and performance space. Following the meetings and research, it was apparent while it may be possible to support a range of uses with the TDC funds, members of the arts community placed a clear emphasis on the need for physical space to support visual and performing arts.

Facilities and Artistic Identity

Physical space is a key element in the success of arts and cultural communities for several reasons. The presence of significant buildings and/or spaces dedicated to the arts is one of the clearest indicators of a thriving arts program within a community. Dedicated art and cultural facilities identify cities that have moved beyond fulfilling the basic needs of their citizens, up to a level in which arts and culture are integral elements in the local social and economic structure. Moreover, based on evidence from cities around the country, we know an active, well-defined artistic community is a key driver of tourism. It is like a circle – the presence of significant arts and cultural facilities help attract tourists - the tourists in turn help support the arts.

Buildings are, however, one of the most expensive components of an artistic environment. Because renting or building physical space is fairly expensive, it is often beyond the reach of many artists or arts entities. In fact, lack of dedicated physical space can be considered a growth inhibitor to the creation of a genuinely successful art program.

Defining an Arts District

Another valuable tool for defining a successful arts community is the creation of an established arts district. When arts and cultural facilities are grouped together, visitors can walk to visit multiple facilities. The visibility of each use, and hence its potential for success, is enhanced. Consequently staff recommends that grouping arts, culture and heritage uses in the same general vicinity be considered.

While there are already funds available from the City, County, CRA and State to support events, activities and organizations related to culture and arts, the $5,000,000 +/- in available PAC funds creates a rare opportunity to provide important physical spaces or facilities that can support a variety of cultural activities. Based on these findings, staff recommends the CRA Board consider identifying an area for informal designation as an arts/culture/heritage district and placing a priority on the creation of physical facilities that support arts, culture and heritage. This can be discussed during Phase 2 of this process after additional research is completed.

Available Resources

There are two separate funds that can be used to support the Art, Culture and Heritage Initiative:

- 1. $508,425 + in Bed Tax funds, incurred during demolition of the John's Building, is dedicated to supporting the Cascades Park Amphitheater. These funds may be used to build support space which may include dressing rooms, a green room, storage or other necessary facilities. These funds could be leveraged with the PAC funds only if the required facilities are being provided.
- 2. $5,000,000 +/- remaining from the PAC effort. These funds are governed by the CRA amended interlocal agreement and Chapter 125 Florida Statutes, as discussed below.

The impact of the above funding sources may also be enhanced by a range of actions, including leveraging the aforementioned funds with new development on the Firestone/Bloxham site, partnering with a local entity to create a facility, potential use of Waterworks or other City or County sites, and possible funding from other entities.

The Interlocal Agreement

Based on the amended CRA interlocal agreement, the PAC funds may be expended to encompass projects, programs and expenses related to culture, visual arts, and heritage programs; performing arts space, or other performing arts projects. The projects must be located in the Downtown District Community Redevelopment Area or the Greater Frenchtown/Southside Community Redevelopment Area. All proposed uses of the funds must be recommended by the CRA Board, and approved by both the County and City.

Statutory Restrictions

In addition to the restrictions in the interlocal agreement, the funds may only be utilized for projects, programs and expenses authorized under Section 125.0104 Florida Statutes (FS), specifically 125.0104(5) (Attachment 1). This includes publicly owned and operated uses such as convention centers, auditoriums, aquariums, museums and sports stadiums and arenas. However, there is some flexibility, as demonstrated by the letter, dated December 1, 1998, (Attachment 2) from Florida Attorney General Butterworth, which provides that the governing body of the County has ability to determine appropriate use of funds based on promotion of tourism in subject county. In an abundance of caution, staff has attempted to select options that adhere as closely as possible to the statutory limitations. If there are questions concerning the appropriate use of the funds, staff may seek another interpretation from the Florida Attorney General.

The Capital Area Cultural Plan

The Cultural Plan, as updated in 2014, identifies goals and objectives to be implemented to support the arts in our community. The resources discussed above provide an opportunity to fulfill several Cultural Plan goals. The Plan provides four goals, three of which are relevant to the Arts, Culture and Heritage Initiative, as follows:

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT & MARKETING: Position and market the arts, culture and heritage as a strategic partner of Tallahassee/Leon County economic development efforts, through public and private funding for arts, arts organizations and cultural assets.

EDUCATION: Capitalize on the area's art, cultural and heritage attributes in order to strengthen art, culture and heritage opportunities in schools and the community.

FUNDING & FACILITIES: Provide sustainable public and private funding to preserve and improve arts, cultural and heritage organizations and experiences. This effort acknowledges the importance of growing new and emerging projects and facilities, but will give priority to existing organizations. The Plan states: "The need for performance venues is a critical priority for performance arts organizations in our community. The community must go forward with the effort to create one or more new performance venues, but there must be a realistic plan, including the affordability for local groups to utilize the space."

It must be noted that the Cultural Plan emphasizes the need for a facility seating 1200, which is likely beyond the scope of this initiative, however, providing a smaller facility, or facilities that support multiple uses, is within the scope of funding and also increases accessibility to local groups.

Use Options

In identifying potential uses for the funds, staff worked to find uses that meet the goals of the Cultural Plan, fall within the scope of limitations imposed by the Florida Statute 125 and the CRA amended interlocal agreement, while at the same time providing an opportunity to earn revenue to pay for operations and maintenance. The following list provides a range of uses and projects that meet some or many of the aforementioned criteria.

Please note many of these uses can be combined to create unique venues.

As previously stated, staff will endeavor to maximize the impact of the available funds by combining related uses, utilizing planned redevelopment projects to save on construction costs, looking for potential partnerships with existing arts and culture entities, as well as identifying uses that have the potential to generate revenue to pay for operations and maintenance.

Operations and Maintenance

While Florida Statute 125 requires a facility constructed with Bed Tax funds be publically owned, it does allow for operations to be implemented through service contracts or leases. Thus the work of managing the facility may be accomplished without utilizing staff from the local governments and in a way that may provide further support to local arts entities. The goal is to create uses that fulfill the Cultural Plan goals but do not place additional financial burdens on the City, County or CRA.

Options

- 1. Provide staff with direction on Phase 2 of the Initiative including 1 or more preferred use(s) for further conceptual development and public input.
- 2. Provide staff with alternate direction.

Florida Attorney General Advisory Legal Opinion

Number: AGO 98-74 Date: December 1, 1998

Subject: Tourist Development Tax, construction of war memorial

The Honorable Martha O. Haynie Orange County Comptroller Post Office Box 38 Orlando, Florida 32802

RE: TOURIST DEVELOPMENT TAX--COUNTIES--CLERKS OF COURT--use of tax revenues to construct war memorial at county courthouse. s. 125.0104 (5), Fla. Stat.

Dear Ms. Haynie:

You ask substantially the following question:

May tourist development tax revenues be used to construct an "All Wars Memorial" at the Orange County Courthouse, when the memorial is to replace a "Vietnam Veterans Memorial" that was demolished at the Orange County Convention Center?

In sum:

Expenditure of tourist development tax revenues for the construction of a new "All Wars Memorial" at the Orange County Courthouse must be based on a determination by the governing body of the county that the memorial directly and primarily promotes tourism.

You have provided background information that a Vietnam Veterans Memorial was constructed in 1983 at the Orange County Convention Center using funds raised by the community and monies from federal revenue sharing. Due to expansion and subsequent renovations of the center, it was necessary to relocate the memorial. The memorial could not safely be moved, resulting in its demolition and the decision to construct a new memorial at the Orange County Courthouse.

The County Attorney has rendered an opinion stating that it would be appropriate to use tourist development taxes to pay for the new memorial as an operating or capital expense. You question the validity of such an expenditure since the original memorial was not funded by the convention center, but was merely placed at the center as a community memorial.

Section 125.0104, Florida Statutes, known as the Local Option Tourist Development Act[1] (act), authorizes a county to impose a tax on short-term rentals of living quarters or accommodations within the county unless such activities are exempt pursuant to Chapter 212, Florida Statutes.[2] The purpose and intent of section 125.0104, Florida Statutes, is to "provide for the advancement, generation, growth and promotion of tourism, the enhancement of the tourist industry, and the attraction of conventioneers and tourists from within and without the state to a particular area or county of the state."[3]

Thus, construction of publicly owned facilities financed by proceeds from the tourist development tax must be primarily related to the advancement and promotion of tourism. It is the governing body of the county that must make the factual determination of whether a particular facility or project is related to tourism and primarily promotes such a purpose. This determination must follow appropriate legislative findings and due consideration of the specific needs and conditions of the particular locality. [4]

Subsection (5) of the act sets forth various purposes for which revenues from the tax may be used. Relevant to the question you have posed, section 125.0104(5)(a)1., Florida Statutes, authorizes the expenditure of tax revenues for the following purpose:

"To acquire, construct, extend, enlarge, remodel, repair, improve, maintain, operate, or promote one or more publicly owned and operated convention centers, sports stadiums, sports arenas, coliseums, or auditoriums, or museums that are publicly owned and operated or owned and operated by not-for-profit organizations and open to the public, within the boundaries of the county or subcounty special taxing district in which the tax is levied. . . "

The plain language of the statute contemplates the expenditure of tax revenues to remodel, repair, improve, maintain and operate a convention center such as the one in Orange County. When a statute enumerates those things upon which it operates, it is ordinarily construed to exclude from its operation all things not expressly mentioned. [5] This office has consistently concluded that tourist development tax revenues may only be used for the purposes enumerated in section 125.0104, Florida Statutes. [6]

The remodeling and expansion of the convention center would appear to have necessarily required removal of the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial. Construction of a new memorial to replace the demolished one at a location off the convention center's premises, however, is not a logical consequence of such remodeling and expansion. Nor does the construction of the memorial at the courthouse appear related to the operation of or capital improvements to the convention center.

While construction of the new war memorial at the Orange County Courthouse appears to be neither a proper capital improvement to the convention center nor related to the operation of the center, it remains for the governing body of the county, not this office, to determine whether such construction is related to tourism and furthers the purpose of promoting tourism in Orange County.[7] Any such determination, however, must show a distinct and direct relationship between expenditure of tourist development tax revenues and the promotion of tourism.

Accordingly, it is my opinion that the expenditure of tourist development tax funds for the construction of a new All Wars Memorial at the Orange County Courthouse depends on a determination by the governing body of the county that such expenditure is directly related to the promotion of tourism in the county.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Butterworth Attorney General

COCA & CRA Downtown Cultural District Ideas

Artists and Arts Organizations - we are looking for new ideas!

Tallahassee is incredibly rich in cultural offerings. We want to make the arts, culture and heritage community even more visible to people who visit Tallahassee and live here.

There is approximately $5 million which was originally earmarked for a Performing Arts Center. That money is being considered for other cultural uses. The Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) is the fiduciary agent responsible for this funding.

COCA is working with the CRA to develop a plan to increase cultural activity in the Downtown area. We are proposing a Cascades Park cultural district to showcase our arts community. We want YOU to help maximize this opportunity. Regardless of your current programming or location, your ideas and participation are needed.

Funds for prospective projects will come from the tourist development tax and ideas must consider these restrictions on the use of bed tax funds:

- * Be located in one of the CRA districts (click the links to see district maps):

- * Meet Chapter 125.0104 Florida Statute requirements for the expenditure of bed tax funds, including enhancing tourism, and possible location in a publicly owned facility.
- * Further local economic development and/or help market the arts throughout our Big Bend region

Ideas under consideration:

Old City Waterworks Building: A hub for meeting, rehearsal, display, retail, a distribution center for materials and promotional material, event space, educational outreach and programming for our arts and culture community. A space that could serve as an arts incubator.

Mixed-Use Space on Meridian Point Plaza: Considerations for a black box theater, mixed-use space.

Other projects being considered: Public art projects, civil rights and heritage based memorials, classroom/meeting/event space, arts sales space.

Many of these ideas can be implemented together. Our goal is to present a unified plan with multiple facets and partners.

To share your ideas, please plan to attend the public meeting of the Cultural Plan Advisory Committee at the COCA offices on Monday, November 9th at 10 AM.

This will be one of several community conversations. We would love to have your input. If you are unable to attend and would like to offer your suggestions, please email audra@cocanet.org or call 850-224-2500.

COCA's programs are sponsored in part by the City of Tallahassee, Leon County, the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture.

- Provide leadership for and related marketing activities that assure sustained growth and economic viability of the tourism industry in Leon County.
- Increase demand for paid lodging, especially during shoulder periods both months and week-parts
- Continue investing resources in cost effective marketing activities and opportunities for area businesses
- Implement marketing programs that are attainable, measureable and specific.
- Define and illustrate the destination's varied attributes, focusing on its unique, authentic qualities to specific audience segments.
- Broaden our marketing reach both within and beyond our defined, primary geographic marketing area – Florida, Alabama and Georgia.
- Communicate regularly with expanded consumer and trade databases through email newsletters targeting specific travel interests and providing customized cooperative marketing opportunities for industry partners
- Achieve quarterly media placements in key DMAs in the primary marketing area and capitalize on the impulse nature of auto travelers.
- Increase traffic to VisitTallahassee.com, Trailahassee.com and CapitalCityAmphitheater.com and keep content refreshed, responsible and reliable.
- Maximize industry participation in all marketing initiatives.
- Increase social engagement with consumers and industry partners.
- Assist industry partners in developing programs and packages for specific market segments.

Insight: The Environment

Competitive Landscape:

- Beach vacations dominate the consumer mindset regarding vacation offerings in Florida's panhandle. Likewise, the state's (VISIT FLORIDA) overall marketing programs focus primarily on beaches and major Central Florida attractions.
- Florida panhandle beach destinations, while competing for essentially the same leisure travelers, offer high quality but mostly one dimensional "vacation experiences." Exceptions include Pensacola (history), Panama City Beach (sports) and South Walton (higher end dining/lifestyle)
- Tallahassee/Leon County either dominates or maintains a competitive position with:
 - Eco-adventure and popular outdoor activities regarded as high quality experiences all within or readily accessible to a contemporary community offering travel amenities and comforts,
 - An emerging contemporary, hip/trendy atmosphere driven by a young population base
 - History, heritage, art and culture
 - Sports both participatory and spectator

Opportunities:

- Leverage the high repeat and frequency rates (averaging more than four visits in the past year) among Tallahassee/Leon County visitors with programs that convert this audience to destination advocates
- The community's friendly, engaging reputation and natural beauty provide opportunities for selling a vacation lifestyle as much a destination
- Adopt a more contemporary posture and personality, focusing on unique restaurants, shops, galleries, nightlife, music and the community's "green" reputation in appealing to Generations X & Y.
- With "experiential travel" popular among all generations, emphasize active pursuits.
 Today's travelers gravitate more toward "doing things" rather than "looking at things."
 For example, the Tree To Tree Adventure at the Tallahassee Museum offers consumer engagement and entertainment in a completely different museum experience.
- Emphasize those authentic and natural qualities that offer a completely different Florida vacation experience.
- During much of the year, Tallahassee/Leon County offers an affordable vacation experience, especially those traveling with children.
- Capitalize on the success of hosting high profile sports events.

Obstacles:

- Limited air lift and volume means focusing on auto travelers but will not preclude seeking promotional activities in Designated Market Areas (DMAs) where non-stop air service to Tallahassee International Airport exists.
- Limited meetings and conventions facilities require focusing entirely on "small meetings" as a niche and specialty. The Division supplements its direct sales activities with email marketing to meeting planners and in the past two years, far exceeded the national average in open rates and engagement with this segment.
- Neutral site college football games, while often lucrative ventures for universities, dilute the economic benefit to the local community.
- Significant capital investment by other communities reduces some of the competitive advantage Tallahassee/Leon County previously enjoyed in attracting sports events.
- Limited advertising funds put more emphasis on direct sales and "earned media" for any Tallahassee/Leon County exposure and success in new or emerging market segments.

Industry Challenges & Changes:

Like it or not, the sharing or "gig" economy arrived and chances are, it's not going away anytime soon. It's a concept and entry into the travel purchasing/supply funnel welcomed by Millennials. In fact, many in that age demographic prefer it.

- Uber Unlike many Florida communities, Uber entered the community with little negative reaction from other transportation companies. Interestingly, in an attempt of attracting more Millennial guests, Hilton Worldwide recently announced an alliance with the ride sharing company in 20 major cities.
- Air BnB While relatively new here, it already offers lodging rentals in 150 private homes or apartments with rates ranging from $45 to $1,000 per night for high-demand weekends during football season. The average price is $123 per night.
- RentLikeAChampion.com A two-year-old web site offering rentals homes throughout the country for college football weekends and special events. The site offers more than 50 area properties for FSU home football games and commencement. Prices range from $500-$2,400 per weekend, depending on game.

The Sports Arms Race:

- The Florida Sports Foundation reports that sporting events account for a $45 billion industry in the state.
- Locally, the Division's success in attracting meets, matches, tournaments, etc. for youth and adult groups plays a critical role in the overall visitor mix. Blurred by intercollegiate events at FSU, FAMU and TCC, most do not realize the impact these tournaments, meets and matches bring to the community. In addition to millions of dollars in direct spending, these events accounted for more than 38,000 hotel room nights last year.
- Competition for these events is intense, throughout the Southeast and among the more than 25 local sports commissions in Florida. The investment in sports facilities in Florida and surrounding areas continues:
 - Pasco County spent $11 million on a multi-sports complex
 - Panama City Beach/Bay County announced plans for a three-phase, multi-million dollar complex that includes an indoor facility
 - Myrtle Beach, SC spent $12.4 million on a 100,000 square foot sports center
 - Seminole County broke ground on a $27 million sports complex
 - A $27 million complex in Foley, AL includes a 104,000 square foot event center

Insight: The Potential Visitor

In April, 2015, the Division conducted a Potential Visitor Report through Kerr Downs Research. The report summarized findings from 500 surveys of potential visitors in 14 major markets in and outside Florida. The findings include (actions noted):

- Top of mind preference for Tallahassee as a Southeast vacation or Florida vacation destination is very low but aided recall is quite high among competitor destinations;
 Since "beaches" define most travelers' opinions of Florida destinations, a key is differentiating our visitor options which, in some cases, places Tallahassee in an entirely different consideration set
- 1 in 9 potential visitors already stayed in Tallahassee and most who have not, cite preferences for other cities or lack of things to do in Tallahassee; Due to limited advertising funds, earned media must convey events and activities to specific audience segments.
- Potential visitors think of Tallahassee for short weekend getaways; This presents opportunities for impulse travel decisions. "Own the weekend."
- Tallahassee is perceived as slightly less expensive than other destinations; Another positive, especially among Generations X & Y which take more frequent, shorter trips that are closer to home.
- 3 in 4 potential visitors would drive if visiting Tallahassee; Another opportunity for impulse travel decisions.
- Half of those who would fly, would fly into an airport other than Tallahassee;
 Expanding air service will help, but mostly from cities with direct service.
- · Tallahassee is perceived as being similar to Gainesville and Tuscaloosa
- When selecting vacation destinations, potential visitors most value:
 - Value for their travel dollar
 - Scenic beauty
 - Pleasant places to unwind
 - Range/quality of accommodations
- Potential visitors rate Tallahassee low on these desired attributes; Ironically, most of these are considered destination strengths by frequent visitors. Retelling that story is critical, especially with shared experiences in social media.
- Potential visitors perceive visitors to Tallahassee as associated with one of the universities or with older people; Both are understandable with the latter influenced by the state's reputation as a retiree haven among many nonresidents.

Fall: Frenzy & More

FSU & FAMU Football Average Attendance

FSU – Seven home games in all seasons except six in 2009 (Home capacity at 82,300) FAMU – Four home games in 2009-2012, five in 2013, 2014 (Home capacity at 25,500) Attendance from NCAA Reports

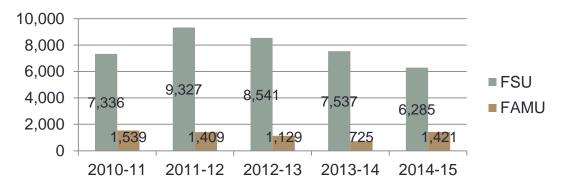

Football remains the focal point during the fall, generating high to maximum hotel occupancy on most weekends and increasing the need for attracting other events or focusing on other activities on those weekend when both FSU and FAMU play away from Tallahassee.

- Limited opportunity for growth, especially with FSU averaging near maximum capacity for home games. A greater opportunity exists when FAMU has the only home game scheduled on a given weekend.
- The financial attractiveness of neutral site games for universities dramatically diminish the local economic impact in the future. FSU has neutral site games scheduled for the 2016 and 2017 seasons.
- The Division successfully complimented fall business by attracting major cross country running events for weekends when both FSU and FAMU play away from Tallahassee.
- Promotion during home game weekends will focus on maximizing economic impact from football fans.
- Promotional focus during weekends when FSU and FAMU both play away from Tallahassee include any "replacement" events (cross country), festivals and outdoor activities.
- Football marketing activities launch during the spring when FSU & FAMU finalize upcoming schedules and emphasize ticket sales/renewals.

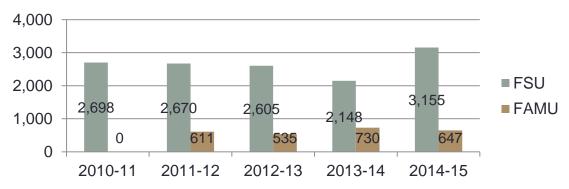

Winter: Shopping & Celebrations

- Leverage Market Days for regional appeal and the area's advantage for attracting holiday shoppers from nearby smaller communities
- Winter Nights & Holiday Lights marketing activities launches during the fall with
 - Email communication(s) and social media campaign focusing on a comprehensive calendar of events
 - Initiate sales programs to targeted tour operators in Florida, Alabama and Georgia
 - Use arrival of cranes at St. Marks Wildlife Refuge as a focus on the area's appeal to outdoor and nature travelers
- College basketball offers an opportunity for growth in winter and early spring, especially focusing on weekend stays in conjunction with key games.

FSU & FAMU Average Men's Basketball Attendance

FSU & FAMU Average Women's Basketball Attendance

FSU – Games at Tucker Center (12,100) FAMU – Games at Lawson Center (9,639) Attendance from NCAA Reports

Spring: "Bragging Season"

- Florida historically leveraged its "weather advantage" to visitors in northern states during the winter and VISIT FLORIDA recently resurrected the practice with a social media promotion featuring a "bragging season" and encouraging residents to share tropical imagery with friends and family living in colder climates.
- Tallahassee has its own "bragging season," with distinct advantages to individual and group leisure travelers during the spring:
 - The spring "festival and color season" is certainly unique for Florida, with especially strong appeal among central and south Florida residents;
 - Engage the local industry and area residents in joining "bragging season" by emphasizing the area's distinct visual appeal and spring color in social media posts.
- The abundance of popular special events and outdoor activities provide opportunities for building weekend stays although one event, this year's FSU spring game moved to Orlando.

Summer: Sports & Family Focus

- Redefine a Florida summer vacation for residents and out-of-state vacationers en route to other Florida destinations, focusing on outdoor activities, exploring historic sites, unique dining and the area's affordability
 - Aggressively pursue story placements in major DMAs 400+ miles north and west of Tallahassee (primarily I-10, I-20, I-40, I-65 corridors) for influencing Central Florida-bound vacationers
- Focus on the destination's affordability to young couples (Gen X and Millennials)
 traveling with children and Boomers traveling with grandchildren
 - Emphasize weekend stays
 - Pursue story placements in targeted media bloggers reaching Gen X and Millennial couples, newspapers (print/online) for Boomers in addition to travel media
- Build destination exposure by showcasing team sports
- Showcase major entertainment events -- the African American Dance Festival and Latin Dance Festival in June and Swamp Stomp at Tallahassee Museum in July
- Use email blasts for filling any unsold dates for fall football weekends

Trailahassee

Objective: Establish Trailahassee as a nation's premier information source for outdoor recreation to specific activity segments -- running, hiking, cycling, paddling and equestrian sports.

Strategy: Achieve awareness and build name recognition to specific audience segments through direct communications with users, indirect communications through targeted, activity-specific media and broader, travel/lifestyle media channels.

Tactics:

- Build a database of dedicated and interested users through the Trailahassee.com and VisitTallahassee.com, banner advertising and other online activity and communicate at least quarterly through email newsletters;
- Achieve story placements about Trailahassee.com on web sites and in regional/national publications appealing to the running, hiking, cycling, paddling and equestrian audiences through direct pitches and organized media research trips to the county;
- Using online banners and story placements in targeting the 17.6 million outdoor enthusiasts in Florida, Georgia and Alabama;
- Emphasize the county's competitive advantage its vast and diverse outdoor recreational resources conveniently located within a contemporary, highly desirable "traditional" destination with an emerging hip/trendy reputation.
- Integrate Trailahassee.com messages on all appropriate event listings on the VisitTallahassee.com calendar of events
- Involve area outfitters in cross promoting their services and Trailahassee,com
- Include Trailahassee.com link on city, county and state web site descriptions of individual trails

#IHeartTally

Objective: Extend the reach of the Division's promotional efforts to specific audience segments through sharing user generated content on social media channels by residents and visitors to Leon County.

Strategy: Capitalize on the importance of word of mouth advertising, the influence of friends and relatives and propensity (especially among Generation X & Millenials) for user generated content by encouraging residents and vacationers to share their experiences through words, photographs and videos about Tallahassee-area sites, events and activities.

Tactics:

- Achieve broad-based use of #IHeartTally by influential individuals, groups and organizations through story placements, direct contact, presentations and actively tagging social posts;
- Use personal relationships and on-going contact with the media for incorporating the hash tag;
- Distribute "social sharing" instructional cards to area businesses, hotels, restaurants, attractions and include in all bags prepared for group visits (reunions, meetings, conventions, sports activities, etc.)
- Promote the campaign at major local events through advertising, banner placements and using street team intercepts;
- More readily display user generated content on VisitTallahassee.com and enhance page views and time on site.
