

Welcome - March 11, 2006

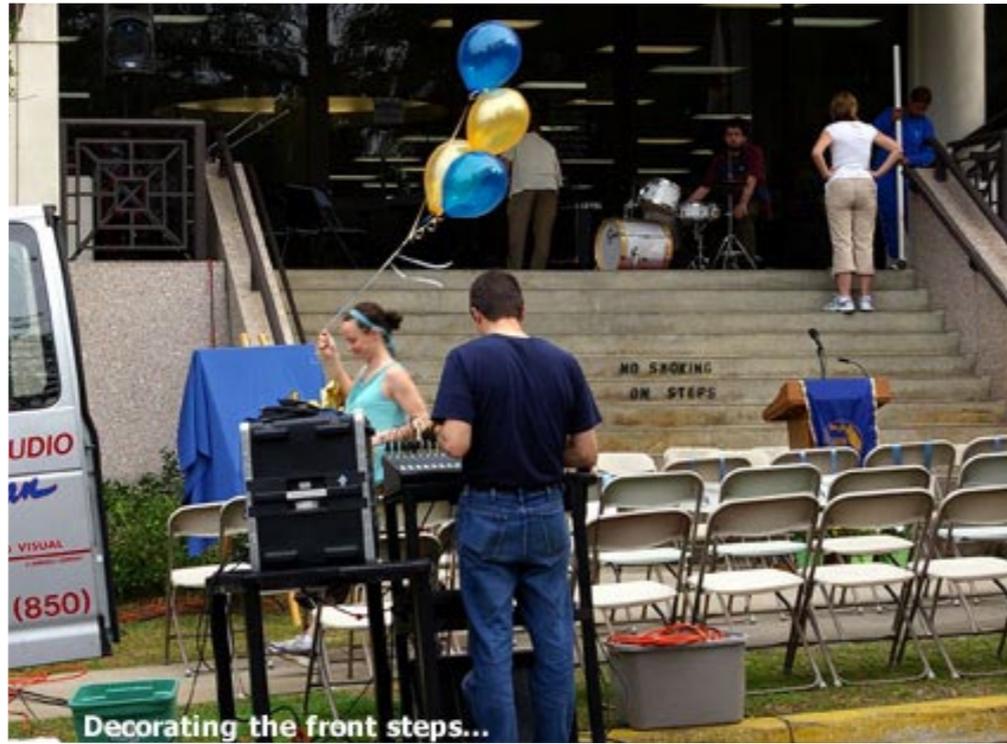

Left to right: Diana Pratomo, Brenda Johnson and Cay Hohmeister getting ready for the crowd.

Library employees, Linda Lucas and Sharhonda Williams sign-up new Library patrons using our wireless technology in the Park.

Library Director, Helen Moeller, prepares to give her brief speech regarding today's event.

Rebeka Gipson-King, from the County's Public Information Office helps document the day.

Preparing tables...

What a great smile!!

It's not easy standing completely still!

No, it doesn't hurt.....
but it does tickle!

What a nice place to read a story.

Fun for all ages....

Sue Barnett-Quick joins in the facepainting fun.

"My name is Leon. What's your name?"

Library kids meet Leon, the Emergency Medical Services teaching tool for the young.

She's working up her courage to talk to "Leon"

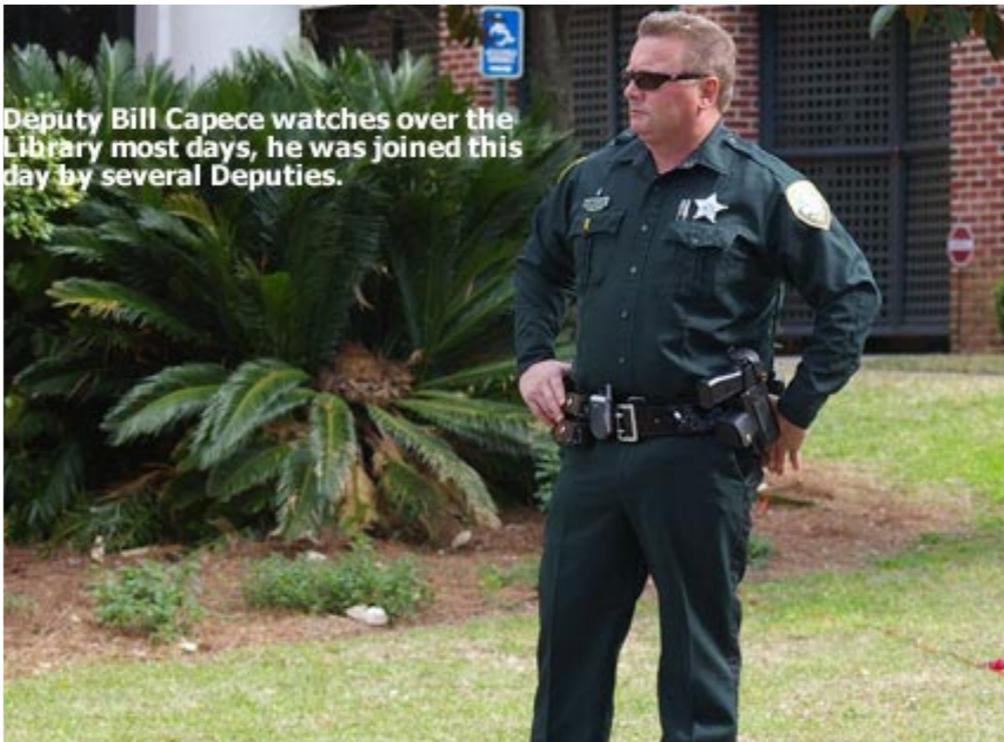

Commissioners Cliff Thael and Jane Sauls chat with County Administrator Parwez Alam and Assist. County Administrator Vince Long.

Commissioner Grippa speaks to the crowd.

Library employee, Jennifer Taylor dispenses information.

Deputy Bill Capece watches over the Library most days, he was joined this day by several Deputies.

Commissioners Grippa, Thael and Sauls help Library Director Helen Moeller unveil the poster that will hang in the Library.

