

Rising Seventh Grade Summer Book Report

For this book report, you will create a book jacket that tells about the book you have just read. Follow the directions below to complete the jacket and be ready to present it in class on Take pride in your work. Use your best penmanship, add color and pictures, edit for spelling and grammar errors, and pay particular attention to your word choice. Neatness counts!

How to Make a Book Jacket:

1. Use a sheet of 12" x 18" construction paper in a light color. From the left side, measure in 3 inches, then 6 inches, then 6 inches, and then 3 inches.
2. Lightly draw vertical lines at each spot you measured. Then the paper can be folded inward along the lines. Check with the diagram below.

3. Follow the directions below for the information to put on each panel.

Putting It All Together

Front Cover: On the front cover you need to include the title of the book, the author's name, your name, the date and an interesting picture drawn by you that represents something important in the book.

Back Cover: On the back cover write a description of the setting and a summary of the events in the book. Remember, the summary states the facts, not what you thought about the book.

Inside Front Flap: Write a detailed description of the main character of the book.

Inside Back Flap: Write down the reasons why you liked the book. Research and write down what others have said about the book. Try to sell others on reading this book.
