

WILDWOOD PRESERVATION SOCIETY LECTURE SERIES

FRED GEORGE PARK AND GREENWAY
AT THE MUSEUM, 3043 CAPITOL CIRCLE NW
ALL LECTURES START AT 2PM ON SATURDAYS
All Lectures Free and Open to the Public

March 5, Paul E. Moler, FWC Emeritus

"Frogs of Florida"

April 30, Doug Alderson, Author and Blueways Pioneer

"Exploring Wild Florida"

May 14, Tom Ostertag, FWC Imperiled Species Biologist

"Long Leaf Pine-Restoring Fred George Basin's ecosystem"

June 18th, Harley Means, FLGS, Geologist

"Karst Environments in Florida and Geology of Fred George Basin"

June 25*, Jim Stevenson (tentative), Florida Springs Expert

"The Beautiful Life of a Dead Tree: The Most Important Tree in the Woods"

July 16th, David Cook, FWC Biologist

"Snakes of Florida"

August 6th, Dr. Christine Ambrose, GIS Specialist and Biologist

"Using GIS for conservation, preservation, recreation and restoration in Fred George Basin"

Wildwood Preservation Society is a 501(c)(3). Thank you for your support.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: MICHAEL KELLY, PRESIDENT WILDWOOD
PRESERVATION SOCIETY @ 229-225-6530

