

Safety Tips for Leon County Hazardous Waste Center

Spring 2014: Keep Thermostats Covered

Mercury switch thermostats are commonly brought to the Leon County Hazardous Waste Center or collection event for disposal. The fragile mercury vials can break if the cover has been removed, as shown above. This can result in a costly cleanup. Leaving the cover in place is the safe option for carrying thermostats to the Hazardous Waste Center for disposal.

