BURTON G. DAVY - Short Bio

Burt Davy began his working career on Wall Street working in the administrative offices of several New York Stock Exchange member firms as an Internal Auditor of systems and compliance. He moved to Miami, Florida in 1966 to work with Economic Research Analysts, a member firm of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange, as Treasurer and Registered Principal primarily responsible for all stock trading and financial stability of the Company. He left that firm and Miami to continue his education at Florida State University where he received his Bachelors degree in 1972, then to Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey for graduate work in Neurophysiology, completing all course work for a Doctorate degree with a 3.8 grade point average.

In 1977, he joined the firm of Mad Dog Design and Construction Co, Inc. as a carpenter and stock holder, eventually becoming Vice-President and Treasurer.

In 1984, Burt Davy formed Gorilla Builders, Inc. as a full service residential and commercial building contractor. After earning the Certified Graduate Remodelor and Certified Graduate Builder designations in 1989, he was responsible for forming the Florida Remodelers' Council, which he chaired for three years.

In 1988-89 he served on several committees directed to form elements of the Tallahassee-Leon County Comprehensive Plan, including Housing and Land Use

In 1991, he was appointed by the Leon County Commission to the Tallahassee - Leon County Planning Commission and became its Chair in 1993. He resigned in 1994 to run for Elected Office (County Commission). In 1996 he was appointed to the Planning Commission again, this time by the City of Tallahassee and was appointed Chair for two consecutive years (1998 and 1999). In 2003 he was elected Vice-Chair of that Commission. His term expired in 2004.

In 2001 he was appointed to the Citizens Advisory Committee for Blueprint 2000 and served until July, 2004 when his term expired.

In 2004 he was elected to the Board of Big Bend Fair Housing .

In 2007 he was elected to the Board of Leon Crew Boosters, now Capital City Rowing.

In 2007 he was accepted into the Leadership Tallahassee program, graduating in 2008

He has been a speaker on topics involving building, remodeling, and land use planning and has taught courses on Design-Build for the Graduate Builders Institute. In 1996 he received the Chrysalis Award as Florida Remodelor of the year.

He has been engaged as an expert witness in several construction related lawsuits.
