

CITIZEN CHARTER REVIEW COMMITTEE MEMORANDUM

DATE: August 4, 2010
TO: The Honorable Chairman and Board of County Commissioners
FROM: Christopher Holley, Sr., Chairman
SUBJECT: Transmittal of the Citizen Charter Review Committee's Proposed Charter Amendments

This memorandum serves as the official transmittal of the Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee's (Committee) Proposed Charter Amendments to the Leon County Charter. On March 18, 2010, the Committee adopted seven proposed charter amendments for the County Commission's consideration. These amendments seek to better position the County in its continued effort to effectively serve its citizens.

During its review process, the Committee held 14 meetings that were publicly advertised, broadcasted live over the Internet and re-broadcasted on the County's Channel. Over this period of time, the Committee received presentations and testimony from many citizens, as well as individual County Commissioners, County staff, and Constitutional officers. This input was vital to the review process as the Committee sought to identify issues for revision and addition to the County Charter.

After five months of considerable discussion and deliberation, the Committee adopted seven proposed charter amendments along with ballot titles and summaries, as required by its By-Laws. Pursuant to the County Charter, the Committee has transmitted the proposed charter amendments 90 days prior to the 2010 general election.

It is my understanding that the County Commission intends to consider the proposed amendments at its August 17, 2010 Public Hearings. I will be available for any questions or comments that the Commission may have regarding the attached proposed charter amendments.
