PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC)

Staff Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs

NARUC is an organization consisting of utility regulators from every state in the nation, as well as the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The Consumer Affairs Staff Subcommittee develops ideas on national policies for the Consumer Affairs Committee on issues relating to utility regulation.

State-National Action Plan Task Force (SNAP)

1998-2001

The State-National Action Plan Task Force is comprised of staff from the NARUC Staff Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs, the Federal Communications Commissioner's Enforcement Division and the National Regulatory Research Institute. Since its formation, the Task Force has focused its efforts on educational projects, federal/state cooperation and communication efforts with consumer advocates.

As a member of the task force, my responsibilities were to determine how the FCC and the state public utility commissions can best work together to build a more aggressive media and consumer approach.

- Coordinated an interview with former PSC Chairman Julia Johnson and FCC Chairman William Kennard on the nationally syndicated Tom Joyner Morning Show, on the telecommunications issue known as "slamming."
- Worked with the producers of NBC's Dateline and ABC's 20/20 to provide case histories, statistical information and possible contacts for a national news feature story on slamming. As a result, Dateline aired a story on slamming in the spring of 2000.
- Coordinated with the FCC and the California Public Utility Commission a "Truth in Billing" news conference at the 2000 NARUC Summer Meetings in Los Angeles, California. Participants of the news conference included: FCC Chairman Kennard, NARUC President and Montana Public Service Commission Bob Rowe, Florida Public Service Commissioner E. Leon Jacobs, Jr., South Carolina Public Service Commissioner Mignon Clyburn and others.
