Please attach your resume, if one is available.

I have lived off Miccosukee Road for 20 of the 27 years I've been in Leon County. Beginning with its acquisition in 1998, I have enjoyed frequent use of the Miccosukee Road Greenway as a biker, walker, and jogger. I once again live off Miccosukee Road within walking distance of the Greenway, and would be honored to have input towards its Management Plan. I think preserving the County's greenways and ensuring they are used as intended should be the main goal of this Citizens Advisory Committee.

I am a Certified Public Accountant in Florida (license no. AC-38887; issued November 13, 2006), a Certified Fraud Examiner (certificate no. 519015; issued September 30, 2006), and am designated by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants as certified in financial forensics (certificate no. 4399; issued May 31, 2010). All of my professional licences/designations are effective in Leon County. I obtained a masters in accounting from Florida State University in April 2006.

NOTE 1:
An entity controlled by immediate family members owns land on Thornton Road that could be impacted by the proposed Thornton Road/Welaunee Plantation construction. Such construction will likely impact the Miccosukee Canopy Road Greenway. To the extent this Committee voted on any such matters, I would likely have to abstain.
