My name is Elaine Camechis Suber, and I was born in Tallahassee and have lived here the entire 53 years of my life. I graduated from Rickards High School (1974), and attended and graduated from Roffler Hair Design. I have now been a hairdresser for 27 years.

In 2001 I opened Miss Elaineous Garden Accents, a garden shop that featured artwork from around the local area. This experience sparked my interest in gardening and landscaping, and I now own Miss Elaineous, Elaine Suber LLC, a landscape design business. In addition, I have been involved in several community projects and endeavors. I completed the Florida Master Gardener Program in 2005, and while involved with the program I have continued to return for continuing education programs that directly impact the health of our community.

In addition to the garden-related projects that I have listed in the attachment, I have volunteered my time with the organizers of the Greek Food Festival, and I also funded and organized a BBQ with family and friends, where we served over 100 homeless people from The Shelter. I am currently active with the Florida State Bee Keepers Association and the The Apalachee Beekeepers Association. I also am in the process of establishing an Apiary at Tallahassee Nurseries that will house two hives in the Spring.
