Dear Lamarr,

Please accept this note as notice of my intention to resign effective immediately as a member of the Housing Finance Authority.

I have enjoyed the opportunity to work with you and your staff, and with my dedicated colleagues on the board. I appreciate the renewed energy and innovative thinking you have brought to the HFA.

My resignation does not end my commitment to the HFA however. As we have discussed, I am convinced that the HFA can play a constructive role in economic development. You can count on my assistance and that of my company on any projects HFA may pursue in that area, a field where we have nearly 30 years of experience. I'll be in touch soon to discuss this further.

With best wishes,
Todd
