Privacy Policy

This Privacy Statement describes how information is collected and used from visitors to the Leon County, FL, Rural Waste Service Center Web site. This Privacy Statement may not apply to links provided to other sites and the privacy statements from those sites would need to be referenced. As this statement may change without notification, the user is encouraged to review this page frequently.

Disclaimer

By using the services provided by the Leon County, FL, Rural Waste Service Center Web site, the user agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Leon County and anyone involved in storing, retrieving, or displaying this information for any damages of any type that may be caused by retrieving this information over the Internet.

Information Collected and how it is used

For online government transactions conducted on the Leon County, FL, Rural Waste Service Center Web site, the user will be asked to enter an address located within the unincorporated boundaries of Leon County. If the address is validated to reside within the unincorporated boundaries of Leon County, only the address will be stored, no personal information, and the user will then access a third party vendor's web site responsible for processing credit card payments for the Rural Waste Service Centers' required Usage Fees.

Online Payments and Public Records

A third-party payment vendor responsible for processing credit card payments will securely process credit card information. Using this site in effect authorizes the third-party payment vendor to obtain personal data in order to process the credit payment. This third-party payment vendor will be required to protect the security of the user's information during transmission by using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software, which encrypts the information input.

In accordance with Florida Statutes, Section 119.071(5) (b), Leon County is exempt from public records disclosure of all bank account numbers, and debit, charge, and credit card numbers which may be held by the Leon County, FL, Rural Waste Service Center Web site's third party vendor. However, it is noted that no credit card information is stored on Leon County file servers regarding the online reservations service.

Note that all other information (non credit card data) provided through on-line means becomes a public record and is subject to the same access requirements as if submitted on paper.

Refunds

No refunds will be issued unless approved by the Director of Solid Waste.
