- (f) The county will provide counsel to the code enforcement board, and in no case shall the County Attorney's staff present a case and represent the code enforcement board in the same case.
- (g) Cases scheduled for a particular day shall be heard. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. At the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board shall take testimony from the code inspector, the alleged violator and any other person familiar with the case or having knowledge about the case. The code enforcement board shall not be bound by any formal rules of evidence; however, it shall act to ensure fundamental due process in each case brought before the code enforcement board.
- (h) At the conclusion of the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board shall issue a code compliance order, including findings of fact, based on evidence of record, and conclusions of law, and shall issue an order requiring compliance and affording the proper relief consistent with powers granted herein. The terms of the code compliance order findings shall be adopted, by motion, approved by a majority of those members present and voting, except that at least four members of the seven-member code enforcement board must vote in order for the action to be official. The code compliance order may will include a notice that it must be complied with by a specified date, and that a fine may will be imposed if the order is not complied with by such date, specifying how the fine will be calculated, and that a lien will be imposed on the property. If the violation was corrected after scheduling of the code compliance hearing but before such hearing, the code enforcement board may enter a code compliance order finding that the violation occurred and has been resolved, and order closing of the file. The code enforcement board shall provide the code compliance order by certified mail to the violator. A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of the county and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns if the violation concerns real property, and the findings terms therein shall be binding upon the violator and, if the violation concerns real property, any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If an code compliance order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this subsection and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, the code enforcement board shall issue an order acknowledging code compliance that shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance. The code enforcement board may at the time of the code compliance hearing authorize the chair to enter the order imposing fine and lien described in section 6-32(j) in the event the violator fails to comply with any one or more of the requirements set forth in the code compliance order.
- (i) -If the violator fails to comply with any one or more of the requirements set forth in the code compliance order issued by the code enforcement board by the corresponding compliance deadline, the county will send notice by certified mail to the violator advising that the violator has failed to comply with code compliance order and will be subject to penalties in the form of a fine per day for each day that the violator remains out of compliance with the code compliance order, and that a lien as determined will be imposed on the property. The violator shall have 20 days from the date of the notice of non-compliance to file a request for a compliance review hearing before the code enforcement board to challenge the determination of non-compliance with the code compliance order, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of the lien. Such request for a compliance review hearing shall be filed with the board administrator, who will notice the case for hearing. Failure to timely file a request for a compliance review hearing will be deemed a waiver of the right to challenge the determination of non-compliance in the code compliance order, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of a lien.

(j) If the violator fails to timely file a request for a compliance review hearing, the county will submit an affidavit of non-compliance to the chair of the code enforcement board. Upon receipt of the affidavit of non-compliance, and confirmation that the violator waived the right to request a hearing to contest non-compliance, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of a lien, the chair may execute an order imposing a fine, which will be filed against the violator immediately and a fine shall be assessed for the days the violator is out of compliance. The fines established by the order imposing fine shall constitute a lien against the property and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator.

 (ik)_-Any case may be continued by the code enforcement board for good cause shown. If the code enforcement board's consideration of a case has already been publicly noticed, the code enforcement board's counsel may grant a continuance prior to the meeting at which a case is to be heard, provided that the request is unopposed by all parties. The continuance shall be announced during the publicly noticed hearing.

Section 6-34 of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida, entitled "Administrative fines; liens" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6-34. – Administrative fines; liens.

(a) As set forth above in Section 6-32, The code enforcement board, upon notification by the code inspector that an order of the code enforcement board when a code compliance order has not been complied with by the set time or, upon finding that a repeat violation has been committed, may order the violator may be ordered to pay a fine in an amount specified in this section for each day the violation continues past the date set by the code enforcement board for compliance order or, in the case of a repeat violation, for each day the repeat violation continues, beginning with the date the repeat violation is found to have occurred by the code inspector past the date of notice to the violator of the repeat violation. If Where a finding of a violation or a repeat violation has been made as provided in this part, at a code compliance hearing and the violator has failed to timely request a compliance review hearing as provided in Section 6-32(i), a hearing shall not be necessary for issuance of the order imposing the fine.

(b) The code enforcement board shall provide by certified mail the findings of fact and conclusions of law to the property owner with a notice that the property owner may request a hearing challenging the fine amount within 20 days from the date of the findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings of fact and conclusions of law shall be recorded after 20 days unless the property owner files a timely request for hearing. If such a hearing is requested, the hearing shall be limited to a consideration of only those new findings necessary to impose an appropriate fine.

 (eb) A fine imposed pursuant to this section Chapter shall not exceed $250.00 per day for a first violation and shall not exceed $500.00 per day for a repeat violation. If, at the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board finds the violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature, it may impose a one-time fine not to exceed $5,000.00 per violation in the code compliance order. In determining the amount of the fine, if any, the code enforcement board shall consider the following factors:

(1) The gravity of the violation.

- (2) Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation.
- (3) Any previous violations committed by the violator.
- (dc) The code enforcement board may reduce a fine imposed pursuant to this section Chapter upon request after the violation has been corrected.
- (ed) A lien for a violation of section 14-31 or 14-41 has a maximum lien threshold of $10,000.00 and shall cease accruing once the lien reaches $10,000.00. Violations that are found to be repeat violations, regardless of the violation, and violations of other sections of the Code other than sections 14-31 and 14-41 do not have a maximum lien threshold, unless otherwise stated.
- (fe) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine shall be recorded in the public records and, thereafter, shall constitute a lien against the land on which the violation exists and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator. Upon petition to the circuit court, such order may be enforced in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of the state, including levy against the personal property, but such order shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit to foreclose on a lien filed pursuant to this section Chapter, whichever occurs first. After three months from the filing of any such lien which remains unpaid, the code enforcement board may authorize the County Attorney to foreclose on the lien. No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this section Chapter may be foreclosed on real property which is a homestead under Fla. Const. art. X, § 4. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this section Chapter runs in favor of the county, and the county may execute a satisfaction or release of lien entered pursuant to this section Chapter.

Section 2. Amendments to Chapter 14, Nuisance Abatement.

Section 14-56 of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida, entitled "Appeals" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14-56. - Appeals.

(a) An aggrieved party and/or the county may appeal a final administrative order of the nuisance abatement board to the circuit court by writ of certiorari. An appeal shall be filed within 15 30 days of the entry of the order to be appealed. As used in this section, the term "aggrieved party" means a person who possesses a present legal right of present or future enjoyment of the property by virtue
