OCTOBER

2016

PEOPLE FOCUSED. PERFORMANCE DRIVEN.

Leon Works Expo Thursday, Oct. 20, 1-3 p.m. LIVELY TECHNICAL CENTER

Ready to define your own success? On Thursday, October 20 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., Leon County Government will host the Leon Works Expo at the Lively Technical Center, 500 Appleyard Drive. The initiative will prepare our community for 10,000 new local skilled jobs expected to be created within the next seven years.

If you are seeking a career change or a new opportunity, the expo will offer the following free services and workshops:

- Employers seeking workers for skilled jobs
- Academic institutions offering education and career path training
- Networking with peers and professors for new opportunities
- Professional headshots for social media accounts and personal branding
- Mock interview training with industry experts

Connecting those interested in skilled jobs with employers and academic institutions.
